Monitoring of the working of the private sector units

2994. DR. BAPU KALDATE: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that recently directives have been given by the Ministry/PM to the financial institutions to monitor the working of the private sector units in which they have investments of big amounts;

(b) if so, what are the details of the instructions given to the financial institutions and by whom;

(c) what has been the response from the institutions; and

(d) what remedial action has been taken on those units which are on the verge of being non-viable?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI JANARDHAN POOJARI): (a) to (d) The financial institutions, undertake regular monitoring of their assisted units in order to ensure that the assistance sanctioned to these units is properly utilised and assisted units run on sound financial lines. With a view to safeguarding the interest of the financial institutions as also to subserve the interest of sound public policy, the Government have laid down certain guidelines regarding appointment of nominee directors of the financial institutions in case of those assisted concerns in which institutions have substantial stake or which are going to run into problems. The financial institutions are expected to follow these guidelines. As regards remedial action against sick units, institutions evolve suitable rehabilitation packages in case of those sick units which are considered potentially viable. For units found to be non-viable, the institutions may have no other option but to recall their advances and enforce their securities by taking legal action.

Lack of civic amenities in Delhi Cantonment

2995. SHRI KAILASH PATI MISHRA: Will the Minister of DEFENCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether seven to eight hundred families living in servant quarters attached to Military Officers' bungalows in the Delhi Cantonment area do not have adequate facilities of water, electricity, sewerage, etc.;

(b) whether it is a fact that the work of laying sewer lines in Delhi Cantonment was reported to be completed as far back as 1983 but no connections have been given so far to the residents there; and

(c) if so, what steps have been taken so far to provide such amenities to the residents?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF DEFENCE PRODUCTION AND SUPPLIES IN THE MINISTRY OF DEFENCE (SHRI SHIVRAJ PATIL): (a) Residents of the detached servant quarters, which were built before 1947, have been provided separate community type civic amenities including a common water tap for a group of 4 to 5 quarters. Temporary electricity connections have also been given to some of the quarters. These are very old structures and these are proposed to be demolished in due course. The quarters built after 1947 have basic amenities like water, electricity and sewerage.

(b) and (c) Trunk sewers in Delhi Cantonment were completed in two phases during 1983 and 1985. Action to connect the houses with these trunk sewers is in progress. This work has been affected by the paucity of funds and the need to rectify certain defects found in the sewerage system.
